

Black Country Learning Kitchen Matrix – Identification of End User Requirements Theme

Project name contact, address	Objectives	Target users	Theme's addressed	Number involved	Outcomes expected	Meeting times	Venue
Walsall
Teenage Mums Online Manor Farm Comm Association King George Cres Rushall Walsall, WS4 1EG Diane Southall 01922-614316 E 6	To identify the training needs of teenage mothers through the use of a cyber cafe as a learning environment.	Teenage Mothers	User Needs	10-20	To have a website created by teenage mums offering advice, support and entertainment to other teenage mums across the area. There is also the intention to provide an accredited qualification in peer mentoring and allow beneficiaries to visit schools and youth associations in the area.		Manor Farm Community Association
I.T.'s a Small World First Base Small St Centre Small St, Caldmore Walsall, WS1 3PR Gary Watson 01922-700950 E 7	To use ICT to encourage young people into learning and to offer web design techniques	Young Homeless and other local disaffected groups	User Needs	45	To bridge learners' basic skills gaps in ICT. To create lifelong learning ambassadors through networking with similar cohorts. To increase individuals' skill base with an outlook to increase and support their employability.		The Small Street Centre
Capturing the past Walsall Libraries Lichfield St Walsall, WS1 1TR Janet Young John Shercliff 01922-653107 E 10	To develop ICT skills through research into personal history. The participants to share the past, develop family trees, restore old photos. The project intends to break down older peoples barriers to using IT and empower them to take part in present day technology	People with little experience of formal education and older people, lacking confidence, all of whom live within more deprived wards.	User Needs	60	Beneficiaries use computers independently. Beneficiaries conduct independent research. Involvement in other learning opportunities. Increased employability. Development of learning material		Walsall Branch Libraries

Project name contact, address	Objectives	Target users	Theme's addressed	Number involved	Outcomes expected	Meeting times	Venue
Stroke Survivors College of Continuing Education Hawbush Rd, Leamore, Walsall, WS3 1AG Terry Bell 01922-654592 E8	To enable people who have had strokes and carers to access courses to develop new skills, to meet people in similar circumstances, and build confidence and self esteem. To develop a social centre for stroke survivors	Stroke survivors and their carers	User Needs	40	Create a web-site for stroke survivors. Develop new skills. Identify the needs of the group. Gain accreditation. Extend the service to the carers. Provide basic skills. The group to become autonomous. Prepare for employment.		College of Continuing Education
Antena Walsall Community Arts Team Civic Centre Walsall Max Bailey 01922-653114 E9	Provide creative technology arts projects for people with mixed abilities, those that have east access to services. To link separated community groups either physically or through the internet	Young people with physical disabilities People with disabilities and separated communities.	User Needs	50	E Learning for disabled people. New technology art skills. Raising self esteem. New groups established.		Various community settings
Sandwell
Bollywood Into Learning Kaljit Kaur Sandwell Foundation of Asian Aurxat 1 Beeches Road, West Bromwich B70 6QE Tel: 9121 525 6031 E1	To use the Bollywood theme to research user needs and develop a virtual learning environment that will be used in peoples homes and community centres	Asian women not in learning	User Needs		Engagement of Asian women. Formal qualifications. Informal learning leading to formal learning.		Various community venues

Project name contact, address	Objectives	Target users	Theme's addressed	Number involved	Outcomes expected	Meeting times	Venue
Wolverhampton
Wolverhampton Equal pathways Josie Kelly E5	To work with people with head injuries, strokes or other disabilities to enable them to take part in lifelong learning using ICT with a view to gaining employment	People with strokes, head injuries or other disabilities	User Needs	40	Minimum of 15 into employment. Changing attitudes and tackling discrimination experienced by disabled people. Improvement in ICT skills.		Local colleges
Dudley
Dudley Gateway St, Thomas Network , CRSIC, Janet Hilkin, Roland Winzer E11	To test and evaluate new ways of encouraging young people back into learning using building PC and robotic arm and been involved in designing websites	16-19 year olds with no or few qualifications who have had little or poor experiences of learning	User Needs	30	Progress onto further learning or employment. Production of electronic CV. Web page design. Construction of simple robotics.		St Thomas Network
Clancy's Project Penny Mitson 0121-550-1415 X260 E13	To re-train staff on the site of Clancy's foundry To address basic skills need and ESOL needs To link with local community, raise the Colleges profile in community To help Clancy's to raise its profile with local community, to be seen in a more positive light.	Employees of Clancy's Foundry likely to become redundant to increase their marketable skills. Employees that need ESOL training Family and friends.	Users Needs	150	Increased prospect of employment. Upskill or reskill in ICT.		Clancey Ltd Converted suite in factory.